

JOSEPH C. GREW
Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary

[Redacted]
WASHINGTON 8, D.C.

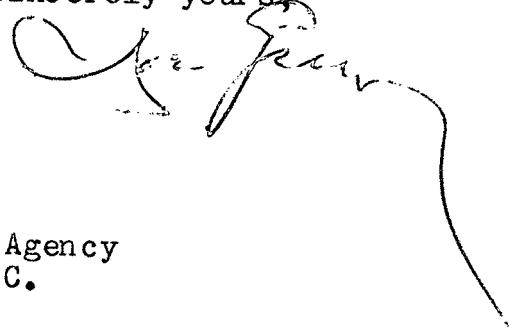

November 29, 1950

Dear Mr. Jackson:

I have read with a great deal of interest the notes on the Central Intelligence Agency and I thank you for so kindly sending them with your letter of November 18th.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Mr. William H. Jackson
Office of the Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

DOCUMENT NO. _____
NO. OF PAGES IN THIS COPY:
 CONFIDENTIAL
CLASS: CONFIDENTIAL DATE: NOV 30 1950
REF ID: A61344
AUTH: ER 134
DATE: 4/3/81 REVIEWER: 064540

18 November 1950

TAT
The Honorable Joseph C. Grew
[redacted]
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Grew:

At the end of our very enjoyable talk yesterday, I forgot to give you the memorandum that I mentioned. Enclosed are the notes to which I referred. They were somewhat hastily prepared as a basis for my discussion with General Smith and others in regard to the functions and responsibilities of the Central Intelligence Agency. In view of your interest in the Agency, I thought these notes might prove useful in giving a general picture of its mission.

With best personal regards,

Very sincerely,

SJ-dip mss ER solvso

WILLIAM H. JACKSON
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

Enclosure